Docent-Led Tours

Docents guide tours of the Learning Center for groups of 10–48. Tours last 60 minutes and typically include discussions, role-playing, and time for free exploration of the exhibit gallery.

Some groups also visit the Michigan Supreme Court courtroom. Additional time is required.

About the Learning Center

The Michigan Supreme Court Learning Center is located in the Michigan Hall of Justice, headquarters of the state's judicial branch of government.

The Learning Center's exhibit gallery is filled with hands-on activities designed for visitors from elementary school to adult. Topics include:

- Role and structure of Michigan's judicial branch of government.
 - U.S. Constitution and Michigan Constitution.
 - Roles in a trial, such as the judge, lawyers, witnesses, and jury.

Educational Programs

Throughout the year the Learning Center offers educational programs on topics related to the Constitution and the judicial branch of government.
